THE POSSIBILITIES ARE INFINITE

FACT Lab Services

FACT Lab helps you find pre-tested solutions fast!

Take the guesswork out of interoperability questions. The Fujitsu FACT Lab is constantly testing the latest host bus adapters (HBAs), controller cards, enclosures and switches with our award winning enterprise and mobile hard disk drives (HDDs). Visit our FACT Lab website to find a list of compatible devices.

- Compatible HBAs, controller cards, enclosures and switches
- Pre-tested application-based solutions and systems

Need custom solutions or complete systems?

If you are unable to find a pre-tested solution in our FACT Lab database, Fujitsu will schedule time to perform interoperability testing of requested devices, or partner with you to develop and test complete application-based solutions.

- Development, testing and publication of application-based solutions
- Joint qualification testing to meet customer-specific requirements
- Duplication and resolution of HDD-related issues in complete systems
- Pre-qualification of new Fujitsu HDD firmware releases

How do I access Fujitsu FACT Lab resources?

If you are a storage solution provider based in North America, please contact us at partner-force@us.fujitsu.com with your product description. Products that will be considered include host bus adapters (HBAs) and enclosures that complement Fujitsu hard disk drive offerings.
